Good Morning, Boniour, Buenos Dias and Gilakas'La Carihi

Battle Of the Bands:

Our fantastically talented Carihi musicians: AJ L., Finley K. & Kaylin L. as well as Carihi Graduates Eli R., Emilio M. & William A., played as "Exit 30" at the Battle of the Bands in Port Alberni on Saturday and WON the Audience Favourite Performance Award! CONGRATULATIONS!!!

Carihi Convenience

The Entrepreneurship classes are excited to bring you a new Carihi Convenience experience. Bring on Summer! During breaks on Tuesday & Thursday teams will be offering up yummy summer treats. See menu posted on the bulletin board or the classroom flyers. We're keeping prices down to help you start celebrating. So save that allowance and help support your peers while treating yourself. Tomorrow featured treats are Fresh Fruit Cups in B Block & Root Beer Floats in D Block!

Marine Biology:

Are you interested in Marine Biology and are currently in Grade 10 or 11? If so, then listen up! Carihi is offering a 3 day, 2 night Marine Biology field trip next Fall to the Bamfield Marine Science Centre on the west coast of Vancouver Island. If you are interested in finding out more about this exciting opportunity, please come to a meeting with Ms. Walls in Room E110 TOMORROW at the start of lunch.

Indigenous Read Contest:

Marrow Thieves, Moon of the Crusted Snow, Firekeepers Daughter, Son of Trickster. These are just a few of the amazing books we have in our collection written by Indigenous authors. To celebrate National Indigenous History Month, the Library is holding an Indigenous Reads Contest. If you have read a book by an Indigenous Author, all you have to do is write a brief review to enter into a draw. Multiple prizes to win. Contest ends June 20th. See the display in the Learning Commons for more details.

Poetry in the Wild:

During the month of June, as part of National Indigenous History Month, we'll be celebrating the work of Hailzaqv poet Jess Housty. Jess's poems will be posted around the school. Look for them in unexpected places. If you find a poem, take a moment to read it and reflect. What does the poem teach us about our relationship with the land, about family and community? If you would like to help "wild" a poem from Jess's collection Crushed Wild Mint come see Ms. Lapointe in the Learning Commons. You can help by: choosing a poem, illustrating a poem, sharing your own poem, or placing a poem around the school.

Important Library Dates:

The Carihi Library is closing early for Inventory. June 6th will be the last day to check out books. June 13th is when all books need to be returned. A Block classes that have returned all of their books by Monday, June 16th will get a treat. Don't let your classmates down. Get those books returned!

Shoes At School – Shoes are to be worn at school at all times, posters saying otherwise are not permitted to be hung.
