The educational objectives/purpose and trip details are:  Students will revisit the art gallery to explore the current exhibit and reflect on their previous creations from November. This opportunity allows them to engage with art in a meaningful way, fostering their creativity and appreciation for artistic expression. Additionally, the climbing activity aligns with our physical education curriculum and offers a hands-on experience to deepen our learning about growth mindset, resiliency, and social/emotional health. Climbing encourages teamwork, perseverance, and self-confidence, which are essential skills for our students' development.
