Tuesday Canteen: Cheesy Bread $8.00

- Attention Student Council members! People on the Committees (Change Rooms, Technology) have a meeting today in Ms. Kasdorf's room during the break.
- Do you like chocolate almonds?? Band students are selling boxes of chocolate almonds for $5 each. Track down a band student to satisfy your chocolate craving from now until November 14th!
- Phoenix wrestling team. All new and returning wrestlers are welcome. If you have not signed up with Mr. Hay, make sure you see him today in his class during the lunch break. Practice starts tomorrow after school.
- It's time. . . the deadliest club at Phoenix is back. D&D club at lunch break in Mr. Hay Room (102)
New and experienced players welcome, bring what you need to play. There will be support to build your own character and introduction to game play.
- If you are an MC in the Remembrance Day ceremony, please go to room 105 for 15 minutes at lunch to rehearse. (12:00- 12:15).
We may need a backup MC - if you are interested, please come see Ms. Wilson at lunch.
- Grade 6 girls volleyball players, today is the last day to give Mme Haggard your permission form for the volleyball games at Southgate tomorrow. We are meeting in front of the office right after school tomorrow and leaving right away.
- No Mt. Bike Club this week due to winds and rain.
- XC Runners: Congratulations on a great season! With our meets over and the rainy weather upon us, our running season is over. No more practices. Thank you all for your hard work and dedication!
