22-41 Call to Order/ Chair's Remarks

Board Chair Kerr called the meeting to order at 7:30 pm. Kerr opened his remarks with an acknowledgement of International Women's Day. In light of recent world events, he shared that the district's webpage includes a news item on talking with children about war and conflict.

He highlighted that the district is facing a projected operating budget deficit of almost $2 million for the upcoming year. Increased costs due to the pandemic including a difference of almost $850,000 between budgeted and actual costs for TTOC coverage due to the pandemic have contributed to the shortfall.

He further reported that an Indigenous focused graduation requirement for all students starting in the 2023/2024 school year has been announced by the Ministry of Education.

22-42 Superintendent's Remarks

Superintendent Morrow noted that students have been busy throughout the district in the lead up to spring break with middle and high school teams qualifying for provincials in several sports, Skills Canada competitors achieving recognition both locally and provincially and elementary school teams competing at Battle of the Books.
