

POLITICAL STUDIES DEPARTMENT

Fall 2023

POLI 100

An Introduction to Power, Politics and the Public Interest

An introduction to the study of politics through an examination of contemporary issues and problems, Canadian and international. Topics include changing political ideals and ideologies, the interaction of political actors and institutions and the impact of globalizing forces on national governments and politics.

Two blended synchronous (in-person with a Zoom option available) are offered: MW 4:00-5:30, 356/336, Lauren Touchant OR TR 8:30-10:00, 356/336, Jocelyne Praud

Instructors:

Lauren Touchant, 355/334, Lauren.Touchant@viu.ca

Jocelyne Praud, 356/338b, Jocelyne.Praud@viu.ca

Prerequisite: None