

Are you really ready for SEX?

Only IF....

1. You and your partner are of legal age (12?). (OMG really?)
2. Having a sexual relationship at this time in your life does not violate your religious or moral ethics.
3. You do not feel guilty or frightened about friends/family knowing.
4. You are confident that you will not be humiliated and that your reputation will not be hurt.
5. Neither partner is pressuring the other for sex.
6. You are NOT trying to:

- a. prove your love for the other person
- b. prove that you are mature
- c. prove you can attract a sexual partner
- d. prove your sexual orientation
- e. get attention, affection or love
- f. rebel against your parents society etc
- g. improve a poor relationship.

7. You can have fun together without any sexual activity and feel safe being “yourself”.
8. You can discuss the potential of contracting or transmitting sexually transmitted diseases and are both prepared to get regular medical checks.
9. You have discussed and agreed on what BOTH of you will do if pregnancy occurs, because no contraception is 100% effective.
10. You can afford condoms and prescription medicines and are not embarrassed to have them filled.
